

Let's build a Snowman

Read the entire dialogue with the students. Then have the students work in pairs and read the dialogue together, each taking on a character. Fill in the blanks using the words from the word box.

Tom: Hi Eve, are you ready to build a _____?

Eve: Hi Tom, yes I am. I have an orange _____ for its nose, two buttons for its _____, and a nice _____ hat to keep its head _____.

Tom: Great, I have a long _____ to tie around its neck.

Eve: It's so _____ today, let's put on our _____ and _____ before we go outside.

Tom: Good idea. There is so much _____ and _____ on the ground. I have my new boots on. You should put your _____ on too.

Eve: Yes, it's the perfect _____ for our wellies. Our feet won't get _____.

Tom: We can also have a _____ fight when we finish. The winner will be the first one to hit the other with _____ snowballs.

Eve: Okay, and Mum said that when we come back into the house we can have a nice cup of hot _____. I love hot chocolate with _____. They _____ and go all gooey.

Tom: That sounds perfect. Let's go out before it gets dark.

boots - carrot - chocolate - coats - cold - eyes - five - gloves - ice marshmallows - melt - scarf - snow - snowball - snowman - warm - weather - wet - wooly

Let's build a Snowman

Read the entire dialogue with the students. Then have the students work in pairs and read the dialogue together, each taking on a character. Fill in the blanks using the words from the word box.

Tom: Hi Eve, are you ready to build a snowman?

Eve: Hi Tom, yes I am. I have an orange carrot for its nose, two buttons for its eyes, and a nice wooly hat to keep its head warm.

Tom: Great, I have a long scarf to tie around its neck.

Eve: It's so cold today, let's put on our coats and gloves before we go outside.

Tom: Good idea. There is so much snow and ice on the ground. I have my new boots on. You should put your boots on too.

Eve: Yes, it's the perfect weather for our wellies. Our feet won't get wet.

Tom: We can also have a snowball fight when we finish. The winner will be the first one to hit the other with five snowballs.

Eve: Okay, and Mum said that when we come back into the house we can have a nice cup of hot chocolate. I love hot chocolate with marshmallows. They melt and go all gooey.

Tom: That sounds perfect. Let's go out before it gets dark.